Rhosesmor over 60's Christmas Party

Holywell Golf Club, Brynford was once again the venue for Rhosesmor over 60's Christmas Party. Fifty villagers enjoyed an excellent 4 course traditional Christmas Dinner prepared and served by Andi, Nick and the girls. Thank you all for looking after us so well. Thanks also to everyone who donated a prize for the free raffle, 16 in total.

We were entertained by singer and keyboard player Allan Murray who performed a mixture of Christmas songs and popular music to get people dancing.

The money for the party is raised by our annual sponsored walk around Halkyn Mountain, visiting some of the local pubs. Thank you to everyone who walked, sponsored or donated and last but not least a big thank you to John and Saffron Hulson for again supplying the walkers with their scrumptious pork pies and sausage rolls.

Halkyn Mountain Protection Group

Halkyn Mountain is such a special place with its geological formations, extensive heathland, mountain birds and rare flora and fauna. Yet, incredibly, there is no local group or society of any kind dedicated to looking towards the well being of all the wonderful things we have here on the mountain.

There are, of course, a variety of outside agencies making decisions - not always wise ones - on what should be happening on the mountain

Green issues seem to be on the Government's agenda again, so this is the time to work locally to conserve and enhance what we have on the mountain.

If you are interested or can help or support in any way please do get in touch by phone - 780510 - for a chat.

Halkyn Community Council

Rhosesmor Play Area

In the last edition of the HMN the Council referred to the suggested closure of the gate to the play area, which is sited along the B5123 road, near the bus shelter. Only a limited number of responses were received. However, the Council appreciated the responses received from Rhosesmor residents.

The Community Council have agreed to ask Flintshire County Council, to consider the closure of the gate. However, the County had previously advised, that should the request be made then the Community Council would be required to financially assist. The Council are awaiting a quotation.

Pentre Halkyn & Rhosesmor play area upgrade

The Community Council in this year's budget (2017/2018) had allocated £10,000 towards new play area equipment. Following an application to Flintshire County Council, for a grant towards new play equipment, the Council have been awarded £5,000. Flintshire County Council advised that Pentre Halkyn play area was in the greatest need for an upgrade, together with the request from Rhosesmor residents, that their play area is upgraded with toddler equipment. The Community Council have agreed to provide a further £5,000, which together with the previously allocated £10,000, and £5,000 grant from the County – a total of £20,000 is available towards the project. The Community Council have asked the County Leisure Services, to provide plans for each play area, with an emphasis on toddler play equipment, to also include the provision of picnic tables.

Council Precept for 2018 / 2019 – financial year

The Community Council Members, in their budget setting process, agreed not to increase their precept during the forthcoming financial year. The present budget will continue at £49,000 – which will increase the present Band D household cost from £35.98 to £36.13 – an increase of 15p for the year.

North Wales Police report

PCSO Laura Jones advised the Council, that she will be moving from her present position, which covers the Community Council area, whereby the new PCSO will attend the January 2018 Council meeting. The following reported offences were advised to the Council: (1) Black Renault car visiting farms in the Halkyn area, offering batteries for sale. Following the visits to the premises, the vehicle registration plates were swapped. (2) Car accident on Springfield Hill. (3) Attempted burglary in the former Royal Oak pub.

The following was discussed with the PCSO. (a) Speeding traffic outside Ysgol Rhos Helyg School. (b) The number of recent accidents on Springfield Hill (B5123) – whereby vehicles have damaged hedges. The PCSO advised, that apart from one accident, there had been no reported accidents on this stretch of road.

Rhes Y Cae Football Field

Councillor Mrs. Nicola Richardson (Rhes Y Cae) discussed the provision of goal posts on the area known as the 'Football Field' in Rhes Y Cae. Councillor Mrs. Richardson had met with a play designer from Flintshire County Council, who had advised that the County would facilitate the installation. The Community Council are now in discussion with the Grosvenor Estate, Natural Resources Wales, together with Flintshire County Council, with a view of installing goal posts. The Community Council do not own the land known as the Football Field – which has resulted in discussions with the aforementioned.

Planning Decisions

Street Lights

In the last edition of the HMN it was reported in relation to the number of outstanding faulty street lights. At the time of writing this article, all faulty lights have been repaired, including underground cabling issues rectified.

The Community Council Members are presently considering the upgrading of 131 street lights that are owned by the Council to a more efficient and energy saving installation. The Clerk advised the Councillors that he had attended a meeting with two other Community Councils, together with a representative from a specialist electrical company. The Company representative had provided details, in relation to the lighting product supplied by their Company, together with an indication of cost. The lights would be guaranteed for a period of 10 years, with a payback time of 5 years. The reduction in electricity costs would be between 40% and 60% a year. Various grants were available to fund the changeover, including a loan from the Welsh Assembly. The present 35 SOX street lighting (orange lights) were not now being manufactured and are therefore difficult to replace as well as being not energy efficient. Councils across the country were seeking more modern and energy efficient lighting systems such as LED. The Council Members agreed to move forward and requested the Clerk to provide the Company with details of the Council street lighting portfolio. The Council will further consider when in receipt of a formal quotation together with contract details.

Children's Summer Playscheme

The Community Council have agreed the financial provision to continue the Children's Summer Play Scheme, which is organised by Flintshire County Council Leisure Services. The cost this year would be £1,309.00 for each area – total of £2,618.00. The two play schemes will take place during the school summer holiday period in Pentre Halkyn and Rhosesmor. Full details will be advertised by the County Council nearer the time.

Donations and Financial Support

Following an application by the Rhosesmor Village Community Group, the Council agreed to fund one WW1 bench seat, at a cost of £647 plus VAT (£776.40); International Sheepdog trials in Nannerch £200; Halkyn Parish Hall £1,500 towards running costs; National Eisteddfod of Wales £100; Llangollen International Eisteddfod £100; Caerwys Agricultural Show £250; Rhes Y Cae Village Hall – towards purchase of hot water heating system, including associated work £600; Marie Curie Cancer Care £200; Welsh Border Community Transport – for providing transport to local residents for hospital appointments £150; Halkyn United Junior Football Club - £1,000.00 (£400.00 towards running costs and £600.00, towards purchase of two sets of goal posts).

County Councillor

May I wish you all a happy Easter and, hopefully, a pleasant, fulfilling spring?

We all need some really fine weather to encourage us in the coming months. It is hard to believe that February is reputed to be the driest month of the year! The outlook from a County Council point of view is not very promising, with the possibility of more cut-backs and austerity.

At last, after a frustrating and long drawn out battle (eighteen months in some cases) the street lights are now working BUT, whilst the replacement LED lights are bright they seem to have a limited area of effectiveness, which in some cases seems to magnify the intensity of darkness in the spaces between the lamp posts.

Some people have expressed their continued concern about the dangers and difficulties encountered when using the road between Pentre Halkyn and Rhes y Cae. It is not generally realised that both that road and the one up the hill from Rhes y Cae to Moel y Crio were not metalled until just before the Second World War. The hard-core was taken from Rhes y Cae quarry, by horse drawn cart, to form the base for these roads. I can do no better than quote from section 55 of the most recent edition of the 'Highway Code':

"Single track roads. These are only wide enough for one vehicle. They may have special passing places. If you see a vehicle coming towards you, or the driver behind wants to overtake, pull into a passing place on your left, or wait opposite a passing place on your right. Give way to vehicles coming uphill whenever you can. If necessary reverse until you reach a passing place to let the other vehicle pass. Slow down when passing pedestrians, cyclists and horse riders." Personally, I am most impressed and grateful for the courtesy shown when driving on these and other roads on the mountain.

Brown Bins - for garden rubbish. After nearly two and a half hours of acrimonious discussion, a majority vote in the Environment and Scrutiny Committee decided that the County Council should levy a charge for brown bins, which will involve individual householders paying £30 per annum to have the brown bin emptied regularly. This works out at under £1 per week. If you use two brown bins at each collection it will cost £60 per annum. There was bitter disagreement over this levy but the opposition failed in their objections, possibly because of faulty tactics. Several complaints were voiced concerning unsatisfactory service, which were duly noted and hopefully these faults should be corrected.

The meeting of full Council on 30th January 2018, at first was in danger of being just as long, concerning the re-instatement of the discretionary reduction of 'Small Business Rates.', specifically as they affected Scout Huts (and other similar charities). Fortunately, commonsense prevailed and an almost unanimous vote in favour of restoring this vital discretionary reduction was passed. This also applies to village halls.

Some parents have contacted me about problems over school buses, basically whether their children are entitled to this help. I have taken this up with the acting Chief Officer in charge of Education, who has promised to have the matter investigated. It is six months since the new academic year began in September, 2017, when there was terrible and inexcusable confusion on several school routes. Disorder was caused by a couple of bus companies reneging on their contracts at the last moment.

In some places there now seem to be more pot-holes than road. The Senior Officer and Director of Street Scene assures me that there are four teams working hard to repair the roads and make them safe. Repairing pot-holes is like applying first aid - a temporary, but essential, safety measure. Owing to the severe budget cuts forced on the Council by the Welsh Assembly many roads that are in desperate need of total repair will have to remain a 'crazy-paving' of old and new and in danger of disintegrating next winter.

In spite of this rather gloomy report it is vital to be aware that voluntary organisations and individuals, too many to mention, are performing all sorts of kindness and help in the community and for this we should all be truly grateful.

With good wishes to everyone on Halkyn Mountain,

Colin Legg C.C.

We are all familiar with the work done in the past by our local church youth group called Biscuits. These have now grown into a larger group, involving young people from the whole of the Mission Area. They've aptly called themselves the 'Journey of Youth' or 'JoY'.

Not forgetting their roots, before Christmas, over 20 of them came to sing carols to those living in the pensioners' bungalows on the Mountain. They handed to the residents personally wrapped gifts with a Christmas message from JoY. Jackie Blain and Roberta Hayes from our churches greeted them in Rhosesmor Village Hall with a heart-warming home-made soup. The first night they visited Pentre Halkyn and Rhosesmor and the second week the snow hindered their plans to visit Rhes-y-Cae, Brynford and Whitford.

The young people genuinely enjoyed the experience of sharing the Christmas message in this old fashioned, personal way and one of the residents left us with this comment, "It was so lovely to hear the carols and receive the gift. The young people were so polite and enthusiastic. This is what Christmas is all about, so a big thank you to you all."

Halkyn WI

As usual December was a busy month for us with our meeting full of Christmas cheer and a demonstration of making flower table displays by our own talented member Mrs Jean Roberts, who then kindly give them as raffle prizes. We all had a very enjoyable afternoon.

Christmas lunch was enjoyed at The White House, Rhaultt, who took very good care of us.

Wiltshire Foods, a locally produced meal company, give a demonstration of its food in January. I was impressed by its range to suit different appetites and swallowing difficulties.

Dyffryn Foot Care joined us in February, highlighting the importance of taking care of our feet.

1st of March at 2:15pm, Kay Millard is with us ,with her talk about Cornish Myths and Legends.

April 5th at 7:15pm is our Guest Night, when visitors from other local WIs join us for entertainment and a buffet. We hope a good time will be had by all.

May 10th at 7:pm, is our birthday month, so as well as our meeting we also go out to lunch this month.
June 7th at 7:15pm Maureen Archer presents Music Hall History as well as a sing along. Should be fun. See how many songs you know?

July 5th at 7:15pm Bill Furze is talking about the Venice Festival.

We take a summer break in August, though I hope to have a day trip planned before that. Watch this space as they say!

Our Meetings are held at Halkyn Library on the first Thursday of the month [except May].
Please contact: Reta Wainwright 01352 780829 if you have any questions.

Blue Bell Walks

It was pleasing to see some new faces on our New Year's Resolution Walk at the beginning of January. However, we are sorry to be losing two loyal and enthusiastic walkers who appeared at our first walk from the Blue Bell fourteen years ago. We wish Peter and Linda Thomas "Bon Voyage" as they join their two sons and families in Perth Australia.

An enthusiastic photographer, Peter has kept a record of all the Walks with photographs on his website. We thank Peter for backing up Walk leaders and for leading Walks when the need arose. We wish them both a happy and healthy future "down under".

Halkyn's Tropical Past

350 million years in the making

Our Mountain holds a rare and mysterious power. Hidden just below the surface, this power can open a gateway into the earth's long-forgotten past. That power is rocks, or more specifically, the fossils within. Fossils hold the key to studying the earth's natural history in incredible detail. What could otherwise be a fairly nondescript rock, when it contains a fossil, can tell us so much about the time and environment at which that rock formed. From this, we can then determine our position on the earth's crust at that point in time.

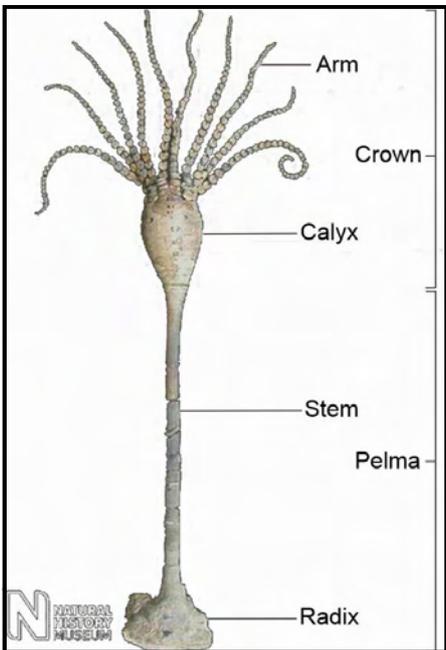

The limestone that underlies Halkyn Mountain formed during the Carboniferous Period, around 350 million years ago. At that time, North Wales was located near to the equator and mostly covered by a warm, tropical shallow sea. A large coral reef, located to the north of Halkyn, sheltered a shallow lagoonal sea from most ocean currents bar a few large storm events. The sea bed was mostly muddy and soft with some rockier areas. This varied substrate provided good habitats for a variety of bottom dwelling, hard-bodied sea creatures.

We know all this from studying just a few fossil sites on the Common. The limestones on Halkyn are unusually rich in fossils, particularly crinoids or 'Sea Lillies', which anchored onto harder substrates, and brachiopods (a type of sea shell) which sat in soft, muddy substrates.

An impression of Crinoids on the Carboniferous sea bed

An artist's model reconstruction of what Carboniferous Crinoids looked like when alive. (British Museum of Natural History, London. 2005)

A hidden gem. A partly exposed brachiopod hiding in the Halkyn limestone. It's been waiting for 350 million years to give us its secrets.

These are often very well preserved in the rocks and it is because of this that we can gain so much information. For example, we can determine the prevailing current direction at that time, from the orientation at which the fossils now lie on the rock bed surfaces, the angle of the slope of the seabed, and even the chemistry and temperature of the ancient ocean water. We can gain information on past climates and therefore paint a picture of climate change over a vast period of time, helping us to understand how climate change could affect our planet today.

Halkyn Mountain is part of a large Site of Special Scientific Interest notified for its rare plants and minerals. The fossils found on Halkyn are also important in understanding the geology but are in danger of being damaged by indiscriminate hammering and collecting. The important geology on Halkyn Mountain should be conserved for future generations to learn from and be inspired by, as I was inspired some 5 years ago when I began to study geology after my interest was sparked on the mountain. Nobody can argue that collecting a fossil can't spark a life-long passion but important fossils sites are often finite and can be easily damaged. Therefore, on protected areas such as Halkyn collect only loose material and remember to leave plenty for others. If it is part of a project where more collecting is required, contact Natural Resources Wales to discuss the work. Further guidance for responsible collecting can be found on the Geological Society of London website - www.geolsoc.org.uk/FieldResources.

Illegal fly tipping, off-road activity, and rock collection/hammering are the main threats our fossils are exposed to. These activities not only have a detrimental impact on the geology, but can also damage our precious flora and fauna. It is also important to note that much of Halkyn Common is protected by UK and European law and that some activities require permission from Natural Resources Wales. Activities may also require permission from the landowner.

The local communities are the eyes and ears of this mountain and should you spot any suspicious activities that threaten our natural features, please contact either Rachael Watson, the mountain warden at rachaelwatson@wildlifetrustswales.org or Natural Resources Wales 'Report it' line 0300 065 3000.

The non-emergency police line 101 can also respond to illegal activities such as fly tipping and off-road driving. If you have any queries or if you would like more information on the geology, get in touch with me at tom.hughes@mytegfam.com.

A limestone bed particularly rich in crinoid fossils. When finely polished, this rock is known as Halkyn Marble, and due to popularity for building stone it is now very rare. Is your doorstep or fireplace made of this?

The Carboniferous Halkyn seas provided a diverse habitat for these creatures to thrive in.

Rhosesmor Village Hall

Over the Christmas and New Year break we had intended to do a number of jobs in the hall. Unfortunately, due to other commitments we only managed the following:

We reorganise the storeroom employing floor to ceiling shelving along the back wall. This has given us much easier access whilst also increasing the storage capacity.

In the committee room, the floor in the doorway area was showing signs of needing replacement. A temporary repair has been undertaken as it became obvious the whole floor needed replacement soon. This will be done when the room is next decorated.

In the picnic area, the balustrade and steps were given a well needed coat of Cuprinol. A small but very time consuming task.

The items still to be completed, hopefully in the next few weeks, include: re-arranging the hot water supply to the committee room to reduce 'water hammer' when turning on the taps in the kitchen; replacing all the emergency light fittings throughout the building and fitting a baby-change unit in the disabled loo. Besides the above there are some minor problems involving the services within the hall.

The Next Jumble Sale will be held Saturday 6th May at approximately 2.00pm.

Hopefully, by the time you read this article all of the above items will have been completed.

Finally, thanks again to John Thomas for his completely voluntary efforts in maintaining the hedge and grass banks around the hall and to Jon Tarry for continuing to take bookings and deal with openings.

If you want to book a room Jon's number is 780842.

Did You Know?

Security and Garden Lighting

Light itself, and minor domestic light fittings, are not subject to planning controls.

Nevertheless, if you are planning to install external lighting for security or other purposes, you should ensure that the intensity and direction of light does not disturb others. Many people suffer extreme disturbance due to excessive or poorly-designed lighting.

Ensure that beams are NOT pointed directly at windows of other houses. Security lights fitted with passive infra-red detectors (PIRs) and/or timing devices should be adjusted so that they minimise nuisance to neighbours and are set so that they are not triggered by traffic or pedestrians passing outside your property.

If your property is a listed building you should always consult the Local Planning Authority.

The potential effects of lighting on wildlife and the environment are often overlooked. Evidence suggests all forms of artificial lighting (including LEDs and halogen) can impact on wildlife. Light pollution from inappropriately positioned security lighting is often the worst culprit.

Artificial light can make gardens a no-go area for some wildlife so it's important to retain some dark areas. Nocturnal insects, including many moths navigate in part by natural light sources, such as the moon, and can become disorientated by artificial light. Many bat species avoid lit areas altogether and although some bats are more tolerant and take advantage of the accumulation of insects at artificial lights to hunt, it can then open these species up to the risk of predation.

Security lights may temporarily blind some animals and may even attract them, as appears to be the case with frogs. Garden birds are disturbed from sleep by sudden lighting and can begin singing before dawn. Disruption of animals' breeding cycle is more serious. Dim lights, such as solar powered lights, are less likely to affect wildlife.

Minimising impact

Ask yourself whether you really need lighting
Lessen the effects of lighting by positioning lights as low as possible and aiming lights responsibly.

Turn garden lights off when not in use or use motion sensors or timers for essential or security lighting.

Hoods can also direct the light downwards to reduce light pollution of the night sky.

Choose low-intensity lighting: solar lighting is cheap, safe and emits a dull glow suitable for garden use.

Why buy a searchlight if a torch is all that's needed?

Witches Knickers Update

Readers may recall an article in a previous edition when we reported that Steve Blakesley from Rhosesmor had published a book under the title "Witches Knickers", the profits of which were to be donated to Cancer Research.

We are pleased now to publish the following update from Steve:

"To all the residents of Halkyn, Pentre Halkyn, Rhosesmor, Rhes y Cae, Moel y Crio and Brynford, I thank all of you who bought a copy of my comic poem anthology called Witches Knickers. Thanks to you and other generous benefactors, the Rotary Club of Flint and Holywell were able to present a cheque for £2,000 to North West Cancer Research."

Copies are still available from Tower Gifts in Holywell and Mold Book Shop. It costs £5 and includes the much acclaimed Happy Valentine's Day.

Rhes Y Cae News

Christmas Coffee Morning

Tuesday 14th November, 10.30am.

This was organised by Rhes y Cae Village Hall committee. What a lovely surprise to see the place decorated in time for Christmas! The weather was milder than Tuesday morning and many people had turned up to support the community centre. Many thanks to the committee and also to the many stallholders. Sara (Nerys's daughter) from Pandy Tudur had an interesting array of reindeers – they were very popular and went quite quickly as did some lovely candleholders with real red berries to display in our homes. Kim, the Catch, Halkyn had been busy making some colourful hangings for our Christmas trees. Rosie and Neil had plenty of interesting glass gifts on their stall.

Thanks to everyone who had kindly donated raffle prizes. The flowers looked lovely on the tables. We were all able to enjoy the refreshments, consisting of tea, coffee and mince pies. The proceeds went towards the Over 60's Christmas lunch on Saturday 9th December. Unfortunately this Christmas meal had to be cancelled owing to severe weather conditions. A new date will be arranged.

Rhes y Cae Church Christmas Coffee Morning

Tuesday 28th November 10.30am.

Many thanks to all who supported us. Also, our thanks to Peter and Doreen Jamieson for making a very interesting hamper. People had to guess how much money was spent to purchase all the items – the winner was Brenda. There was a variety of goods on the stalls. Thanks to all who contributed towards "Trash or Treasure." Also, there were some Christmas decorations – many of them were hand made. Many thanks to Dorothy for supplying some lovely chocolate and ginger cakes, also to Brenda who had made some delicious home made mince pies. Many thanks to all who had provided an interesting selection of raffle prizes. Colin was at the door and he also gave a vote of thanks towards the end of the morning. Total monies raised was £320 – an excellent result!

Advent 1 Toy Service

Sunday 3rd December, 8.45am

Each year the congregation contribute gifts of toys for children in care, including possible gifts for teenagers as well as for younger children and these are delivered to social services.

Rhes y Cae Church Carol Service

Wednesday 13th December, 7pm.

Unfortunately the weather was quite blustery, and it was quite difficult to venture out. However it was a very enjoyable evening, as everyone had the opportunity to sing the first carols of 2017. Afterwards there were refreshments of sherry or Schloer with gingerbread and mince pies – many thanks to all who contributed.

Salsa Christmas Party

Wednesday 13th December

After the service, we joined the Salsa class and were greeted with mulled wine by Trevor our tutor. It was a lovely end to the evening – many thanks Trevor. You are welcome to join us in the Village Hall on Wednesday evenings at 7pm, except during school holidays.

The Crib Service – Christmas Eve, 4pm

There was an excellent turnout of people. It was lovely to see so many happy families coming to this special service. The young children enjoyed helping Rev'd Hugh Burgess telling the Christmas story. They were searching for the various characters hidden away in the church. Everyone seemed to enjoy singing the carols with enthusiasm. We were given some chocolate treats on the way out of church.

Many thanks to Hugh and Colin for making the service so enjoyable.

Christmas Day Service – December 25th, 9.30am

A special service with communion – it was a quiet but very pleasant start to the Christmas Day festivities.

Future Dates

The Big Breakfast will be held on Sunday 18th March, 10am-1pm, in Rhes y Cae Village Hall.

This year we are raising money for MIND, the mental health charity.

We'll be serving all the usual cooked breakfast items including veggie options, as well as cereal, toast, pastries, fruit salad and hot & cold drinks.

Everyone is welcome to come along and enjoy a great breakfast and a chilled out morning with the Sunday papers!

A Few Words from Danny the Donkey

With the arrival of the New Year I am feeling positive as there is much to look forward to. The evenings get lighter and eventually the days get warmer. Despite the expectation that humans have of donkeys, I am a 'trough half full' donkey. It comes fairly naturally to me but nevertheless is a good way to look at life.

I accept that everyone is very different. Sheep can be a little negative in their outlook. They do bleat a lot and complain about the absence of rams and the quality of the available grazing. From my experience, they also love talking about their ailments. Rabbits on the other hand are very positive, but rarely stop long enough to share it. Owls sit in the middle of the two extremes. They are never backward when offering an opinion but neither could I describe them as enthusiastic or negative.

Humans seem to fluctuate and I have noticed that their level of positivity varies with the weather. I don't think I know of any other animal that changes in this way. I look forward to the better weather when I can see my field is full of delicious thistles and grass. It is good to have the excitement of something to look forward to. My mother used to tell me to appreciate the present and to keep a happy balance of enjoying today and looking forward to tomorrow. She said that just to look forward can lead to disappointment. She once made friends with a group of turkeys and they would spend many an evening planning a holiday in the spring. They could see a distant field with a stream and thought that it would be a lovely place to visit when the weather improved. All through the autumn they planned the trip. My mother contributed many ideas and thought everything had been agreed for the joint trip. However, sometime in December, the turkeys left early one morning without her. She was really annoyed that they had gone without her but although she squinted, she could never quite see if they had reached the field. After this episode, she always warned me never to trust a turkey.

I think that being positive is generally a good thing although over-enthusiasm can also be annoying (I'm thinking about seagulls).

I have an acquaintance who is a cat and friends who are dogs. I know where I stand with them. The cat can be demanding and occasionally negative. The dogs are usually upbeat and are great when they stand still, but they don't seem to get the message that I just "don't do" ball games. I don't understand the point of running after something you already had in the first place. Why run after a ball, when you can stop still and munch grass? It's such a waste of good grazing time.

Yes, I'm a positive donkey. I'm off now to try and cheer up some sheep. Just spare me the foot-rot stories!

Bye for now,

Danny

Rhes y Cae Carol Service

On the 22nd December the annual Carol Service was held at Capel Ebeneser, Rhes y Cae. As usual the conductor was Goronwy Ellis, Gorseth. He has led our carol service for the last 30 years. Mr Colin Legg was our faithful organist. We always have nine Bible readings, seven carols and items from choirs and soloists.

Dr. Goronwy Wynne, Licswm conducted the local choir, which sang two unaccompanied traditional carols. Our guest accompanist this year was Mr. Tim Stuart, Northop Hall, an extremely accomplished pianist, who is the official organist in the Cymanfa Ganu in the National Eisteddfod of Wales. Our three National winner soloists were Ceri Roberts of Henllan, Rhys Meiler of Llangefni and Steffan Owen of Ynys Môn. Their items were of the highest standard. The beautiful flower display was provided by Mrs. Menna Coleclough, Y Nant.

This occasion is usually well supported, with no empty seats. But this year the fog was so thick that many people from the Mold area had to turn back due to the highly dangerous conditions on the road. One person described the fog at Moel Y Crio as being like "thick soup"! Unfortunately one person did in fact crash their car into a ditch - but still eventually arrived at the chapel - through thick and thin!

Many thanks to all.

Rhosesmor Christmas Fair and Grotto

In November, the Rhosesmor Village Community Group held their Christmas Fair at Rhosesmor Village Hall. This annual event was bigger than ever, attracting visitors from near and far.

A wide variety of stalls offered homemade cakes and refreshments while visitors tried their luck at fun activities such as Shove Ha'penny, Tombola and Find the £50 Note.

Several stalls featured beautiful handmade items for sale from local artists and craftspeople.

The highlight of the fair was the arrival of Santa and his elves who took up residence in the beautifully appointed grotto to delight children and adults alike. All the children got to speak to Santa and were rewarded with a gift to take away.

Overall a great time was had by all and the organisers are already planning for the fair to be bigger and better next year.

Memorial Garden Rhosesmor Churchyard

Thanks to all who have joined the working party to provide a special place for the community to sit, to find peace and quiet and remember their loved ones. Thank you for all your hard work in pulling the garden plans together, moving the slabs for the raised beds, clearing the large areas under the trees of all the ground ivy, uncovering lots of spring bulbs coming through. This will look wonderful when in flower soon. Also thanks to Jackie for the coffee and cake.

Special thanks to John Thomas (pictured left) who has worked so hard over the last 4 months clearing and preparing the plot for the garden. His commitment and dedication to our community is remarkable. If you would like to make a donation to the cost of the garden you will find a donation box on the shelf as you walk into church. As a community garden we hope that the community will donate plants too.

If you wish to do so or you wish to help in any other way please contact Viv Barlow on viviennebarlow@gmail.com.

Ysgol Rhos Helyg

It has once again been a very busy time here at Rhos Helyg. You can find out all about the school through our Twitter feed @ Rhos Helyg School.

Remembrance Day

Members of our school council took a wreath to the Cenotaph in Rhosesmor on Remembrance Day. This is a tradition that our school council has carried out for many years.

Christmas at Rhos Helyg

Father Christmas came to visit our Foundation Pupils.

The Infant Christmas Show was the Little Red Robin, whilst the Juniors sang a medley of Christmas themed songs.

Pupils from the Foundation Phase visited the cinema in Prestatyn to watch A Little Star as a Christmas treat.

The Juniors visited Theatre Clwyd to enjoy the panto Sleeping Beauty.

Snow

Despite the snow and ice closing all Flintshire Schools, the pupils enjoyed playing in the snow on their return to school.

Climbing Club

The Club has gone from strength to strength under our climbing instructor Dave Jones. The pupils have some sessions at our climbing wall at school before progressing to the more challenging climbing walls at the Argoed.

Make it Club

Our Foundation pupils enjoy making a wide variety of things in this club.

Book Fair

We have re-introduced a Book Fair at Rhos Helyg. This event, that lasted for a week, was well supported by pupils and parents and has proved to be a big hit. Hopefully, it will re-ignite a love of reading in some of our pupils.

Y Criw Cymraeg

We have introduced a new Welsh initiative at school recently in order to further improve standards of Welsh at Rhos Helyg.

These pupils are working closely with our Welsh Coordinator in order that our Welsh Language skills continue to improve.

Making Potions

Pupils from Year 4/5 have been making magic potions as part of their work on Harry Potter. They came up with all kinds of wonderful ideas for their potions such as the Wish Granter Potion and the Mermaid Transformation potion.

Gardening

As the seasons change we are already preparing to sow some seeds in our polytunnel in order that we can transplant them outside.

Mindfulness for Back Pain

Back pain has multiple causes including, genetic disposition, repetitive activities, injury, diet, posture, stress, smoking, age, sedentary lifestyle, and arthritis. The combination of these causes leads to spinal joint inflammation and muscle strain. Your chiropractor can address the pain from inflammation and muscle strain, but it will come back if you do not address the causes.

How Mindfulness Can Help

Mindfulness is a powerful tool to help address many of the causes of back pain because it puts your mind back in touch with your body. Our modern world tends to make us goal focused, looking out there, while we are unaware of the subtle tensions that arise in our bodies through everyday activity. These tensions can build up to such a degree that the body finally starts to break down, leading to pain. When you are more in touch with your body you will not like the effect of eating unhealthy food, you will feel restless with a sedentary lifestyle, you will be aware of the hormonal changes in your blood chemistry caused by stressful situations. Your habitual postures will start to feel uncomfortable; you will notice the strain that repetitive activities are placing on your body.

When you are more aware of these negative effects, you will feel compelled to make changes. Mindfulness will make you eat a better diet, exercise more, maintain better posture and, most important of all, find creative ways to deal with stress in your life.

History of Mindfulness

Mindfulness is a Buddhist practice that started to filter to the west in the sixties. As more and more people found the practice beneficial, meditation centres sprang up in Europe and the USA. Mindfulness is one aspect of the Buddhist spiritual path known as the Eightfold Noble Path. Many people found the practice hard to stomach, either because it challenged their Christian beliefs. Others found it difficult because people were becoming averse to anything that smacked of religion.

Jon Kabat Zinn, an American writer and ex-Buddhist monk, is recognised as a major proponent in the secularisation of mindfulness. Since the 70's universities around the world have been studying the effects of mindfulness, based on his work. Researchers have published hundreds of papers that show remarkable benefits for this practice. Bangor, Exeter and Oxford are the main universities where mindfulness is studied. You can get masters degrees and other post graduate qualifications in mindfulness from these universities.

The universities developed an eight week, one evening a week course, based on thirty years of research into mindfulness practice; Mindfulness Based Stress Reduction. I include simple mindfulness practices as part of my treatments for people suffering from back pain but to really get a taste for mindfulness I would recommend the 8 week MBSR training as a starting point.

Halkyn & District Bowling Club

I am trying to find something interesting to say, but it is cold, wet and miserable. It is hard to imagine playing in the sun. I'm enjoying sitting in my warm lounge; I should be exercising for the new season - maybe tomorrow.

But it's a good time to plan. I'm definitely going to try to play better bowls this next season - no prizes last season. Maybe you should all be thinking how good it will be in the sunshine at Halkyn Bowls Club. Just come and see how we enjoy it. Our new members who joined last year cannot wait for the season to start. If you want someone to bring you that can be arranged. I must say the Bowls Club isn't easy to find, but it is worth the effort.

We haven't been completely lazy this winter, Halkyn has two teams in the Flintshire indoor bowls league with mixed success. The two teams are about even. We are out there getting our one a day exercise.

In my last report I said that Halkyn had been successful but had not won anything. I was wrong. A cheque arrived this week, prize money for coming third in our league - encouragement I hope.

This next season will be difficult. We need two teams, that's going to be hard. We will do our very best to maintain our standard. There must be someone out there who knows how to play and would love the chance to rescue us.

Come along to our Open Day on April 7th, starting at 2.00pm, all are welcome. Turn left off the Brynford road out of Pentre Halkyn at Bryn Felin and look for Cae Helyg and signs for the Bowling Club. There you can meet us, perhaps try your hand and enjoy the view.

The three winners in our 100 club were Leyla Lamb, Joanne Alonso and Megan Davis was the £30 Christmas winner.

So, get in touch for any reason - we are here to help:
Bill Worrall - 710702 and Julie Lewis - 781212.

Holywell Ladies Christmas Open - 23rd November

The weather was not very kind to the Lady Members and visitors who attended the Ladies Christmas open at Holywell. However, the welcome was warm and mulled wine chocolates and mince pies were provided. The day was organised by our lady Vice Captain Linda Leech and Maureen Bibby helped by volunteers. They all did a fantastic job, thanks from everyone. The presentation was made by our professional, Matt Parsley, pictured here with the winners Steph Brooke and Nest Houghton and our lady Vice Captain Linda Leech (left). In second place was Dilys Jones and Olwen Thomas. The winners were all from Denbigh. Nearest the pin on the 12th hole was Jan Cain from Holywell. After seventeen years at the club Matt will be leaving us in the New Year for pastures new, we wish him all the best for the future.

Juniors Invite Relatives to Play the Silver Course

The juniors invited Parents/Grandparents and other relatives to join them in a round of Golf on their silver course. There were 18 pairs even though the weather was not very kind. This was the first time this event had taken place and it was a great success. The winners were Sam Williams and his Grandad Alan Roberts. Congratulations to them both. Best 1st division junior was William Griffiths, 2nd Callum Owen-Jones and 3rd Sam Williams. Best 2nd division junior was Jack Harris and 2nd Oliver Jones.

Juniors Trio/Quartet Competition - Sunday 29th October

The junior organisers decided to recreate the competition that the club used to run in the past. This consisted of a Lady, a Gentleman and a Junior. This proved a great success. The winning team was Joyce Eakins, Howard Jones, Harrison Prior and Owen Elliot-Jones.

Holywell Seniors Section

Holywell Golf Club's Retired Gents Section was formed in 1985. At their AGM in November 2017, a proposal was carried for it to be renamed Holywell Seniors Section. This now falls in line with most golf clubs in North Wales. Membership is available to any full member who has reached the age of 55. The section plays matches both home and away as well as domestic competitions. Holywell golf club has over the years benefited from the Retired Gents Section with the purchase of essential golf equipment and furniture items.

At the AGM, the Chairman of the Retired Section, Mr Elwyn Roberts, stood down from the role he has held for the past 14 years. Also standing down as treasurer was Mr Brinley Edwards.

The Holywell Senior Section wishes Elwyn and Brinley all the best for the future. Voted in to replace Elwyn and Brinley are new Chairman Mr Kevin Leech and new treasurer Mr Pat McDermott.

New Year New Era

Holywell Golf Club at Brynford has begun 2018 with considerable changes since Matt Parsley was appointed General Manager of Conwy Golf Club. Mrs Carol Saunders has taken over the role of Secretary/Manager, having worked with Matt for a number of years as the Assistant Secretary. We also welcome our new Professional, Joshua "Josh" Charnock, who took over on 15th January. Josh is a PGA Qualified Professional who originates from the Shrewsbury area and was previously an Assistant Professional at the Berkshire Golf Club, Ascot. He was selected from an excellent group of candidates and we hope Carol and Josh will be very happy in their new positions.

Our picture shows Carol and Josh being welcomed into their new appointments by the Chairman of the Management Committee, Mark Smale.
